BIG BUSINESS DEAL WAS CLOSED TODAY

Soda Water Plant of Hewlett Bros. Company Sold Out

TO J. H. DENHALTER OF PROVO

Latter Will Conduct the Business in Orpheum Theater Building—Has Faith in Salt Lake.

Possessing unbounded faith in Salt Lake's business future, believing that this city is to be the big distributing point for the intermountain country, and desiring to join with the forces at work here to boost Salt Lake, Mr. John H. Denhalter of Provo has purchased the soda water business from Hewlett Bros. company, and will locate in this city.

This important business transaction has just been consummated. The price paid for the plant was not given out, but it runs well into the thousands, and means that an additional outlay of capital will be made.

WHAT MR. HEWLETT SAYS.

When seen this morning and asked the reason for closing out the branch of the business, Mr. O. H. Hewlett explained that his firm was fully alive to the necessity of specialization, and that they had disposed of their soda water business in order to provide more room, and to devote all their time and attention to their other lines.

"Our other lines have increased so rapidly during the past two years," said Mr. Hewlett, "that we find it necessary to give our entire time and attention to them, and then, we need more room. Here to the north of our present plant we are now constructing a three-story building that will more than double our present capacity, but even this will not be sufficient when the spring business fully opens up, and so the soda water business had to go, but we are pleased to have assisted a purchaser who will be just as successful, we believe, as we have been, and who will serve the public of the intermountain country, just as faithfully as we have tried to do."

LOCATE ON STATE STREET.

Mr. John H. Denhalter is a Utah man and has been in the soda water business for the past 30 years. He has made Provo his home, and although he does not intend to close out his business in that city, he feels that everything points to Salt Lake as the big distributing point of the intermountain country for the future, and hence the necessity of his making this city his permanent headquarters.

Mr. Denhalter has a temporary home for the time being, but it is understood that he will secure a lease on one of the big stores and basement in the Orpheum theater building, where he will locate his plant permanently. Mr. Denhalter will begin business just as soon as the machinery is moved, and in running order, which will be in the near future.

It was the first appearance of Miss Pearl Vetter as a vocalist, whose friends present gave her a royal reception. Those participating were Miss Nellie Peck, Miss Kate Stagner, Miss Jeanette Luman, Miss Pearl Vetter, D. C. Young, Jr., Miss Hilda Beavis, Miss Jessie Pugh, Miss Gertrude Kelly, Howard Tibbels, Miss Beattie Westphal, Miss Helen Greenwood, Miss Edna Evans, Miss Irene Kelly, Miss May Russell.

LOOKS GOOD FOR HAIGH.

Has Gained Two Votes in Count of Murray Ballots.

County Clerk Eldredge yesterday afternoon commenced the count of the ballots cast in the city election at Murray for the purpose of deciding the contest over the office of city attorney which has been instituted in behalf of David M. Haigh, against Stephen L. Richards, who was declared elected to the office by a plurality of only two votes. Judge Ritchie, in whose division the case was to be tried, authorized County Clerk Eldredge to count the votes. The ballots in three districts were counted yesterday afternoon and Richards lost two votes and Haigh gained two. This will elect Haigh unless other changes are made in the count in the other two districts, which will be counted on Thursday.

WOODMEN WELCOMED BACK.

Head Consul of the Order Entertained Last Evening.

Last evening was a red letter occasion with the local Woodmen of the World, when camps 33, 35 and 4 and the three Circles of Women of Woodcraft welcomed Head Consul I. L. Bask of Denver, who stops over here on his business tour through the state. These organizations have a membership of 200 men and 500 women, so that the Odd Fellows hall was packed well crowded. There was a musical and literary program and an address from the distinguished visitor. The program included vocal solos by Emily Larson, piano solos by Miss Margaret

Free; piano solos by J. S. Donelson, with Miss Maud Thoms, piano accompanist; a vocal solo by Joseph Pohl, a recitation by Edward M. McLeeland, and a number of selections by the library quartet, consisting of Joseph Pohl, W. A. Fisher, A. E. Brady and R. Ness.

The speaker of the evening gave a historical resume of the Woodmen and of Woodcraft, and spoke of the advantage of insuring with the order rather than with the old life insurance companies, stating that loyalty was the best asset an insurance company could have. Loyalty will produce capital, but capital cannot produce loyalty. The greatest assets are individual character and collective loyalty. Individual character is the promoter of fortune and comforters of misfortune. The present demand is for men who will be honest and honorable in the dark as well as in the light. Insurance must be conducted in accordance with the first principles of honesty. We should cultivate honest men rather than millionaires because they are more valuable and useful. Mr. Bask will spend the remainder of the week in visiting camps out in the state.

HAD HUSBAND ARRESTED.

Officer Phillips last night arrested one John Jones for assault and battery, alleged to have been committed upon the person of his wife. He was taken to the station, and after sobering up somewhat, put up a cash bond of $25 for his appearance in court. Later Mrs. Jones called at headquarters and asked that her husband be again placed under arrest, as she feared that he would renew the attack upon her. She seemed much distressed, and that her request was not complied with.
